ACT SUMMARY

- Designates September 22 of each year as Emancipation Day.

CONTENT AND OPERATION

The act designates each September 22 as Emancipation Day, in honor of the anniversary of the issuance of the Emancipation Proclamation by President Abraham Lincoln on September 22, 1862 (R.C. 5.2234). The Emancipation Proclamation became effective January 1, 1863, and freed the slaves in all territory still in rebellion against the United States.
